

Youth Board Member Application

The Kids Voting Leon County (“KVLC”) Youth Board is a scholarship program that offers students of Leon County, Florida a hands on opportunity to learn about local and state government. The students participate in a wide range of events constructed to promote knowledge of the elections process and responsibilities of our elected officials. They also help the local board of KVLC promote and educate the citizens of Leon County, Florida about the Kids Voting program.

As a member of the youth board you will participate in many events that will promote knowledge of the election process and responsibilities of our elected officials. Youth Board Members may participate in events such as hosting candidate debates or public forums for candidates, creating promotional tools to inform citizens of the Kids Voting program and fundraising events for future scholarship funds. Youth Board Members will also have the opportunity to earn community service hours.

The KVLC Youth Board is open to all high school students in Leon County. Participation in the Youth Board may make you eligible for a chance to win a scholarship from KVLC to use toward college.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the Youth Board, please complete the information below and return it to kidsvoting@gmail.com. We are looking for dedicated young leaders who want to make a difference!
